Skates in variety have always been more or less popular in Honolulu.

As a feature of the Molokan welcome San Johnson might teach Co. F. to say Aloha in Russian.

Everyone wondering why the other is so foolish as to increase his acreage, is the situation in the sugar countries at present.

Anyone reading the Eastern papers would know without making that the Hawaii business men delegation carry no press representative.

All the che fa banks have closed. The morning paper will have a full explanation of why the police are not entitled to the slightest credit.

Honolulu hotels, like everything else, are all right. The town has never failed in ability to accommodate one more and make him perfectly comfortable.

Extension of the time limit on appeals to the Federal Supreme Court ought to be a guarantee against Court manipulation on this end of the line to prevent the perfection of appeals.

An Eastern paper makes the following interesting editorial announcement:

The General Smith who is to be governor of the Philippines is not the same one who is known as "Hell Roaring Jake."

Secretary Root declares that the American Consular service should not be an old man's home. But it is better to have back country old men with average horse sense than youthful brilliancy such as Loomis and Bowen furnished the State Department.

Governor Carter in his annual report says: "And one may watch the Chinaman with his water buffalo plowing a rice field, toiling comfortably in the latest model of an automobile." Had the Governor written the report after his experience with the latest model automobile and the grip, he probably would figure that the Chinaman and his water buffalo had the best of it.

The Molokans will be properly greeted if they enjoy satisfying the widespread curiosity they have aroused. No people ever brought to the islands have been so widely heralded. They also have no small responsibility on their shoulders in "making good." Should they fail to do all that is expected they will furnish arguments against European labor until another generation arrives on the scene. Successful, they will be the salvation of the Territory.

Kaunala has no doubts on the value of local self-government, judged from this comment of the Garden Island: "Talk of County governments not being a success. Why, under the old regime it took Berger's band thirteen years to get as far as Kaunala. Now the boys get trips abroad every year."

The only way out of the everlasting plinkies that the Educational Department is subject to, seems to be to turn it over to the Counties. They apparently have found a way of successfully dealing with problems.

If the Improvement Clubs are reaching out to secure the co-operation of all the people with the same speed that preparations are making for a central organization, there can be no complaint. If the cooperation of all the people is not the first consideration, Honolulu Improvement Clubs will soon be no more than a memory. The usefulness of the whole movement, its very life, depends on the people doing for themselves, not as they are told. When the operation is reversed, and the many are expected to follow the directions of the few, it is a matter of comparatively few weeks when the many will rebel. The first aim should be to have every resident voluntarily on the list of and cooperating with some club.

TOM JOHNSON REFORM SCHEMES

While a few of our good citizens and some not so well intentioned are making the atmosphere warm with their schemes for reforming the city, it can do them no harm to study the reformer who "does things" without making so much noise about it. There is no objection to an enthusiastic campaign against vice so it is something more than brass band music to cover a multitude of other sins committed or overlooked by the tooters of the horn. Honolulu has had examples of all kinds and knows what they are.

In consequence of their many experiences with reform and alleged reformers, citizens of Honolulu will be interested and instructed by a short statement of most Tom Johnson's straightening out the city of Cleveland which can probably display more intricate vice in one ward than can be found in the whole city of Honolulu. This is what Collier's Weekly says of Johnson's work:

"Tom Johnson's ideas are elegant, lucid, and incisive, whatever the topic of which he treats. A body of ministers recently made a consensus of opinion about the enforcement of laws against liquor abuses, gambling, and disorderly houses. Mr. Johnson replied that the usual history of cities was for a reform wave to include a formal crusade against vice, without even temporary improvement. The evil is scattered through the city and hidden, not removed. The police court dockets are choked, delay is inevitable, and in the end most of the cases are dismissed."

"The Mayor of Cleveland has used a different method. He has not spent his strength in securing legal convictions. He has practically wiped out gambling by merely keeping a policeman at the door of a house, to make it unprofitable or, when this fails, breaking down the door and destroying the unlawful paraphernalia instead of keeping it for evidence. The most dangerous sinners have been stamped out by similar proceedings, the well-behaved ones being unmolested, even if open at forbidden hours; and the third evil has been mitigated in the same spirit. The improvement under this system in Cleveland has, of course, been made possible only by the existence of an able and honest city government. Mr. Johnson appeals primarily to results, but he also offers to the reformer a philosophy which underlies his whole procedure. More men, in his opinion, drink because they are miserable than are miserable because they drink; and women who live on vice do so usually not from choice, but from the pressure of conditions. To reduce poverty, therefore, by making opportunity more even by the abolition of unjust privileges—to that slogan the Mayor of Cleveland ever returns."

Johnson's theory and practice is in line with the spirit of a letter of appreciation written the Bulletin after the publication of the article on conditions in Palama. The letter contained these remarks among others: "People don't go to hell as readily as many would have us believe. People get poor and circumstances crowd them. A great number are naturally improvident and are not industrious by nature or education."

Waves of reform operated for the purpose of getting one set of officials out and another set in have as frequently made conditions worse than the first. Any alleged reformation scheme which does not have as its foundation a determined effort to make opportunities more even and at least let a little light of day into the homes of those who largely inhabit the districts vice naturally seeks, is indeed an alleged reformation—not real.

BOARD PREPARING TO BUILD SCHOOLS

The Board of Education will in the near future open up a great building activity. The plans and specifications for the Hilo High School, for which there is a $25,000 appropriation, are almost ready and tenders will be called during the next two or three days.

Negotiations for a site of about one and one-half acres for the new Paia school are under way with Charles Booth and others. As soon as the deal is closed plans will be called for the building, for which there is a $25,000 appropriation.

Tenders will also soon be called for the addition of two new rooms for the Makapala school at Kohala, and for the repairing of the old building, which, with its additions, will become a four-room school.

John Kanikoa, a young Hawaiian from the Big Island, has been secured to take charge of the Waimanalo school, which and to be closed for lack of a teacher.

GAIL FOR BIDS
ON TRANSPORTATION
DIRECT FROM RUSSIA

Letters went forward in the Alameda mail today to the head offices of steamship companies which would be interested in the matter, inquiring as to terms for the transportation from Russia to Honolulu for about sixty-five families of Russian Molokans.

As previously stated, it was originally planned to have 130 families come from the Los Angeles Molokan settlement to take up the Kapaa, Kauai lands. Now it has been arranged that but half of this number of families will come from Los Angeles and the remainder to complete the Kapaa settlement is to be made up of Molokans direct from Russia, to whom their friends and relatives at Los Angeles have written to join them on Kauai.

Transportation direct from Russia is the next thing to be determined and J. B. Castle went to the steamship representatives here for terms. He was referred to the mainland headquarters of the companies, and so he has written the head offices for bids on the carrying of the Molokans from Southern Russia, on the Black Sea coast, direct to Hawaii, via Sydney or Hongkong as the case may be.

Mr. Castle stated this morning that serious attention was now being turned to the proposition of the Hakeka settlement by Los Angeles Molokans. The company had offered to bear the expense of representative Molokans coming from Los Angeles to investigate the land and prospects and in all likelihood the deal would go through.

WALLER APPOINTED

Gilbert J. Waller was today appointed a member of the Board of Prison Inspectors by Acting Governor Atkinson in the place of F. J. Lowrey, who has resigned. Atkinson states that the great and kindly interest which Waller has always shown towards those who have fallen from the path of righteousness eminently fits him for the position.

A perfect torrent of demurrers of defendants in the beef trust case were filed this forenoon in the office of the United States District Court clerk. Those represented were Alfred W. Carlier, American Sugar Co., Ltd., D. P. R. Isenberg, J. F. Brown, McBrady Sugar Co., Ltd., A. M. Brown, Robert Hind, Jane Wight, Robert Horner, Albert Horner, Annie T. K. Parker and Elmer E. Conant.

Governor Potts of Guam, who is on his way to assume charge of his domain, this forenoon paid an official call on the Acting Governor. He was accompanied by Captain Lyons and Captain Sam Johnson. During the call the band played national airs.

CUBAN MINISTER TO THE U. S.
RECOMMENDS PE-RU-NA.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States, is an orator born. In an article in The Outlook for July, 1899, by George Kennan, who heard Quesada speak at the Estaban Theater, Matanzas, Cuba, he said: "I have seen many audiences under the spell of eloquent speech and in the grip of strong emotional excitement; but I have rarely witnessed such a scene as at the close of Quesada's eulogy upon the dead patriot, Marti." In a letter to The Peru Medicine Company, written from Washington, D. C., Senor Quesada says:

"Peruna I can recommend as a very good medicine. It is an excellent strengthening tonic, and it is also an efficacious cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh."—Gonzalo De Quesada.

Congressman J. H. Bankhead, of Alabama, one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., gives his endorsement to the great catarrh remedy, Peruna, in the following words:

"Your Peruna is one of the best medicines I ever tried, and no family should be without your remarkable remedy. As a tonic and catarrh cure I know of nothing better."—J. H. Bankhead.

For special directions everyone should read "The Life of Life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists at one dollar per bottle or six bottles for five dollars.

Those wishing direct correspondence with Dr. Hartman and can wait the necessary delay in receiving a reply, should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.

GUAM'S NEW GOVERNOR
COMMANDS S. S. SUPPLY

Being commanded by the new Governor of Guam, the U. S. S. Supply entered port yesterday afternoon at about 5 o'clock. She will coal here and receive some minor supplies, and by Saturday she will be ready to continue her westward course. Commander T. M. Potts, the new Governor, is a popular officer, and it is expected that he will be liked by the citizens of the little islands he will supervise. He is accompanied by his wife.

The trip of the Supply from San Francisco was over rough seas, and was not altogether pleasant for that reason. The officers on board the Supply are as follows:

Commander T. M. Potts, U. S. Navy, commanding; Lieut. Commander R. O. Bitter, U. S. Navy, executive officer, Asst. Surgeon R. B. Chapman, U. S. Navy, medical officer; Ensign W. T. Conn, Jr., U. S. Navy, navigator; Ensign G. P. Brown, U. S. Navy; Asst. Paymaster L. N. Wertenbaker, U. S. Navy, pay officer; Boatswain F. Dorey, U. S. Navy; Warrant Machinist J. L. Bullinger, U. S. Navy, chief engineer; Boatswain A. O. Larsen, U. S. Navy; Carpenter F. N. Maher, U. S. Navy; Pary Clerk R. W. Smith, U. S. Navy.

The following passengers are being taken by the Supply to Guam: Mrs. T. M. Potts, Mrs. R. O. Bitter and two children, Mrs. L. M. Smith, Mrs. R. B. Chapman and child, Miss Lantz, Mrs. W. T. Conn, Jr., Mrs. Geo. Wilson, Miss Wilson, Mrs. McLean, Paymaster W. R. Bowne, Mrs. W. R. Bowne, Pay Clerk B. W. Jennings.

LARGE CHE-FA BANKS.

To punish the che-fa bankers undoubtedly has a great deal to do with the closing of the banks. It is understood that a couple of vigorous sentences, one of a year's imprisonment and another a $500 fine, imposed on che-fa bankers during the last few days, have given the gambling element a healthy scare.

The Grand Jury kept on with its work in the gambling line as usual this forenoon. Some difficulty has been experienced in locating the che-fa agents, whom it wishes to subpoena. As a rule, the agents have a room in one of the tenement buildings in which they do business, while they live at another place. During the last few days the agents have found their offices too dangerous for the business and have instead done their selling on the street or in alleys, nooks and corners. This has made the locating of them very difficult. The Grand Jury today started on its old plan of ushering its witnesses in and out through the High Sheriff's office. In order that they should not be seen by outsiders, it is understood that Senior Captain Parker of the police was among those who were smuggled into the presence of the inquisition through this exclusive entrance today, and that other members of the Police Department have been called to testify.

The Grand Jury will undoubtedly return some interesting indictments against some of the big guns of che-fa-dom, who have appeared before it. Against many of those against whom no charge of gambling can be placed the charge of perjury will be preferred, leaving the unhappy victims between the horns of a bad dilemma.
